

Jim Thornton

Position

Ben Avon Council Member

Email

Email

Profile

Jim is an independent consultant focused on strategy, planning and management of Health Information Solutions for Integrated Health Delivery Networks. Jim and his wife Susan, have been residents of Ben Avon for 31 years and have proudly raised their two children in the borough. He believes in honest and transparent government and will work to ensure the best interests of our borough residents are represented. Jim looks forward to working with our council to further enhance and improve the lives of our residents.

Print